

Healthcare Everyone Access Remotely with Telemedicine - H.E.A.R.T. Seminar 2018

Where: Stoncrest Library

3123 Klondike Road
Lithonia, GA 30038

When: May 9, 2018

Time: 1:00 PM

Topics of Discussion

Telemedicine 101: What is and what is not Telemedicine?

Medical and Community Advantages of Telemedicine.

Ways to increase patients' affordable and quality health care.

Cost effective possibilities for the medical and health care industry.

Using Telemedicine in medical, health care and community centers.

SPEAKERS

(Confirmed as of March 21, 2018)

Where: Golden Corral

1350 Hwy. 138 NE
Conyers, GA 30013

When: May 10, 2018

Time: 1:00 PM

Councilwoman Dr. Diane Daniels Adoma

for City of Stonecrest District 5

Presenting Topic: Telemedicine the smart choice.

Ed Honeycutt

Account Manager with Global Partnership for Telehealth

Presenting Topics:

Financial investment and infrastructure medical professionals need to create telemedicine services for clients – three models.

Attendees

Physicians, Advance Nurse
Practitioners, Nurses,
Healthcare Workers,
Students and Caregivers.

Dr. Marion J. Maloof, D.C., B.C.A.O

Maloo Family Chiropractic

Presenting Topics:

Atlas Orthogonal and Holistic Approach to Healthcare

Admission

Free for Public.

Demetrius McCoy

Chief of Staff for

Commissioner Mereda Davis Johnson of DeKalb County
District 5

Purpose of H.E.A.R.T. Seminar 2018

Bringing awareness, education, and knowledge sharing about the importance of enhancing and producing telehealth and telemedicine services to the community.

Lloyd Sirmons

Director of Southeastern Telehealth Resource Center (SETRC)

Presenting Topics:

What is Telehealth and Telemedicine?
How can Telemedicine impact Healthcare?
What are barriers to Telemedicine?

Registration and Information

Website: <https://piercegrace.wixsite.com/telemedicineforall>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/TelemedicineForAll/>

Twitter: @telemedicineall

Contact

Virginia G. Pierce-Kelly

Email: telemedicineforall@gmail.com

Telephone: 404-216-0680 (mobile/text)