

Hunger

Poem by piercegrace

Saturday, July 23, 2016

Location: Florida

Time: 9:18 a.m.

Hunger is always non-religious, inclusive, fair, non-prejudice, non-discriminating, and lives around the world.

It brings growling sounds inside the tummy

It causes division and lack of foods that are yummy

It is a selfish greedy entity that does not care

It is not concern about what clothes or shoes you wear

It does not care if you are black, blue, brown, orange, red, or white

It comes to visit any time of day or night

It does not care what religious denomination you join

It does not care where your were born

It does not care what location you dwell

It causes an emotional and physical spell

It appears in the worse of times

It causes a person to commits passion-filled crimes

It causes a person to make poor decisions

It comes into a person's life and brings division

It separate people causing hate and violence

It desires people to experience painful, hurt, and shame in silence

How do we stop hunger from becoming a "friend" in a person's life?